

Polgwedhen Farm

Traditional Farmhouse Bed and Breakfast

Polgwedhen is situated at the end of a private lane, approximately ½ mile long at Greenbottom, near Chacewater, just west of Truro. Surrounded by its own 10 acres of gardens, lake and pasture fields, the setting is idyllic, quiet and peaceful.

We are former hoteliers and ran a Country House Hotel for some 20 years. Now we very much enjoy welcoming guests to Polgwedhen.

One double bedroom and one twin bedroom is available for guests with en suite shower / wc / handbasin. Both bedrooms have garden and lake views.

Breakfast is either Full English or Continental as required, cooked on the AGA and served in the Sun Lounge overlooking the gardens to the lake beyond.

Features:

- Peaceful, Private and Secluded in 10 acres of gardens and pasture
- Lakeside Gardens
- Double or Twin Rooms
- TV, radio
- Tea/Coffee making facilities
- Full English or Continental Breakfast
- Ample Parking
- Relaxed, Friendly Atmosphere and a Warm Cornish Welcome from Experienced Hoteliers

For the holidaymaker - we are situated in lovely countryside within easy reach of both the North and South coast beaches and accessible to all major first class tourist attractions. Walkers will enjoy the tracks and footpaths in the surrounding countryside. We are always happy to provide information on tourist attractions and local events

For the business traveller – we are just 5 minutes off the A30 and ideally situated for the commercial centres of Truro, Redruth, Camborne, Falmouth and Newquay.

For those attending courses at Saveock Water Archaeology – Polgwedhen and Saveock are neighbouring properties and it is possible to walk to and from Polgwedhen via the fields without going onto the road.

Greenbottom is situated between Chacewater and Threemilestone; both villages offer a choice of village shops, pubs/restaurants. The county town of Truro is only approximately 4 miles away, offering good shopping, restaurants, bars, cafes, pubs, theatre and cinema. There is a good bus service at the top of the lane, Truro – St. Ives via Hayle, and a park and ride service to Truro is a few minutes' drive away. There are bus and train connections at Truro for other parts of Cornwall.

Polgwedhen - so close to all the major attractions in Cornwall
